Mort Stamper and wife were guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Hollon, Sunday.

Mrs. Laura Stamper and daughter, Lillie, and Fred Rouse, brother of the former, visited relatives and friends in Menifee county Saturday and Sunday.

Aunt Roseline Stamper, who has been confined to her room for three years past and who is making her home with Drew Stamper and wife, was able to visit Mort Stamper and wife from Friday until Sunday.
Aug. 30. SPRINGTIME.

Night On Bald Mountain.

On a lonely night Alex Benton, of Fort Edward, N. Y., climbed Bald Mountain to the home of a neighbor, tortured by asthma, bent on curing him with Dr. King's New Discovery, that had cured himself of asthma. This wonderful medicine soon relieved and quickly cured his neighbor. Later it cured his son's wife of a severe lung trouble. Millions believe it's the greatest throat and lung cure on earth. Coughs, colds, croup, hemorrhages and sore lungs are surely by it. Best for hay fever, grip and whooping cough. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all dealers.

TRENT.

Mrs. Geneva Brown made a business trip to Campton Monday.

Go With a Rush.

The demand for that wonderful stomach, liver and kidney cure, Dr. King's New Life Pills—is astounding. All dealers say they never saw the like. It's because they never fail to cure sour stomach, constipation, indigestion, biliousness, jaundice, sick headache, chills and malaria. Only 25c by all dealers.

LEXIE.

Miss Clemmie Lacy spent Sunday with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Trimble.

Golden, the little daughter of Clarence Trimble and wife, is very sick at this writing.

Cleveland Rose and J. R. Brooks left for Lexington Sunday, where they will remain for some time.

The protracted meeting that was to begin at the Johnson school house last Sunday was postponed, but will be held in the near future.

Maud McNabb, who is teaching at this place, was called home last Thursday to be at the bedside of her brother, Edgar, who is very low with fever.

Mrs. M. S. Campbell and daughter, Rosalee, and Misses Estella Coldiron and Golden Nickell, of your town, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Trimble.

There was a social given at the home of Misses Rosa and Lula Perkins Saturday night in honor of the Misses Fairchild and Prater, of Salyersville. Among those present we noticed Misses Lula and Alma Prater, Helen Fairchild, Sarah Perkins, Joseph Estep, Dorsey Rose, Hervie Stambaugh, Alex James, Willie Fairchild and Frank Johnson. All report a nice time.

A Hurry Up Call.

Quick! Mr. Druggist—Quick! A box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve—Here's a quarter—For the love of Moses, hurry! Baby's burned himself, terribly—Johnny cut his foot with the axe—Mamie's scalded—Pa can't walk from piles—Billie has boils—and my corns ache. She got it and soon cured all the family. It's the greatest healer on earth. Sold by all dealers.

INSKO.

J. W. Bailey and wife are visiting relatives in Rowan county.

Mrs. John Bailey and Emma Lykins were guests of Wm. Patrick and family Saturday night.

Kelson Couch and wife, of the Grassy neighborhood, passed thru here en route to Magoffin county.

Holly Ferguson and Rus Tailbee are building a new dwelling for H. P. Davis, which will soon be completed.

Shelby Risner, the great cattle king of Grassy, passed through here the other day with a very fine bunch of cattle.

The Baptists have commenced hauling lumber and making other preparations to build a new church house on Wheelrim.

Rev. W. H. Elam and son-in-law, Rev. Andy Crase, will leave Tuesday for Fleming county to attend a Baptist association.

J. L. Burkhardt is establishing a new postoffice on Wheelrim. "Nat" will write from the new point, and we will have to secure a new correspondent at Insko.
Aug. 30. NAT.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy is today the best known medicine in use for the relief and cure of bowel complaint. It cures griping, diarrhea, dysentery, and should be taken at the first unnatural looseness of the bowels. It is equally valuable for children and adults. It always cures. Sold by all dealers.

MURPHY FORK.

J. S. Picratt and daughters, Zelpha, Nora and Maggie, attended the meeting at Praters Ford, on Blackwater, Sunday.

Dave Lawson swapped a mule for a very fine saddle mare to Cleve Phillips last week. Both claim they made a landside.

Dorsey Paulbee came back Friday after a two weeks' stay in the blue grass. He claims there were no shade trees in that district, hence he flickered back.

Jack Frakes pulled up stakes Sunday and left for Mt. Sterling. The broken hearted girls on the creek will have to advertise for another singer or shut up shop.
Aug. 30. TULIP.

"Can be depended upon" is an expression we all like to hear, and when it is used in connection with Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy it means that it never fails to cure diarrhea, dysentery or bowel complaints. It is pleasant to take and equally valuable for children and adults. Sold by all dealers.

George W. Barnes, Evangelist.

Two books by Mr. Barnes are published, one a catechism of truth, 100 questions and answers, paper bound, price, ten cents. The other four sermons, cloth bound, price, forty cents. Proceeds from the sale of these will be used to publish two more books by Mr. Barnes. His lectures, "The Lost Tribes," "The Vanished Scepter," and a large book on the first chapters of Genesis. Of this book Mr. Barnes says in the preface, "If anything I have written on holy themes was 'inspired' this book bears that stamp more unmistakably than any I have penned." These are ready for the press, and subscription for these publications will be gladly received. $3 will bring you at once the two books already published and the other two when issued, or $2 will bring you the two now ready, and either of the others when published. Send your orders and subscriptions today to Mrs. Mary B. Craig, Box 162, Stanford, Lincoln County, Ky.

Not a minute should be lost when a child shows symptoms of croup. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough has begun, will prevent the attack. Sold by all dealers.

Reduced Freight Rates to the Kentucky State Fair.

The Kentucky State Fair management announces that it has secured a positive reduction in the switching charges into the Kentucky State Fair grounds on all kinds of freight, including live stock, from $7 per car in and $7 per car out, to $3 per car in and $3 per car out. They believe that in a short time they will be able to induce the railroads to absorb all the switching charges and, in fact, have the promise of some of the railroads to do so and are anxious that all exhibitors know that they will not have to pay such a high rate, even if they have to pay anything, as they paid last year.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh That Contain Mercury

as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is tenfold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, O., by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free. Sold by druggists. Price, 75c a bottle.
Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

WISE & OTHERWISE.

No one thinks he looks as old as he is.

To pass an idea is to multiply its power.

What a little affair it takes to start a row.

The tears people shed are not bitter, they are salty.

A lazy man is always ready to hand you free advice.

Old age comes in a canter to a man who goes the pace.

Don't make a mistake of picking a quarrel before it is ripe.

Some people are as careless as naturally as others take pains.

Battles are not won in the courts, but by an appeal to the people.

Ever think of the great amount of time you waste in talking foolishness?

A man laughs when he's amused. A woman laughs when she thinks she ought to.

By standing up for yourself you may prevent others from sitting down on you.

Look yourself over. Do you bore people? A good many do, and you are not above suspicion.

The trouble with a man who thinks he knows it all is that he invariably tells a little more.

The father of virtue need never be surprised when invited to become the father-in-law of vice.

A busybody never has any time to attend to his own affairs, and is always unsuccessful and shiftless.

Farmers are often prevented from becoming rich by the fact that the bug is never invented until the second year.

We have heard people abused so much that we don't care for it any more. We would rather hear people praised for their occasional good qualities.

This is the time of the year when the woman turns the house upside down and inside out for the purpose of putting the stove where the bed used to be.

There is some hope for the boy who has to be driven into the bath tub, but there is mighty little hope for the boy who has to be driven away from the looking glass.

In their efforts to advance rapidly men make their greatest mistakes. The man who travels the right road, and does not travel too fast, will suddenly find himself at the destination he was longing for.

In referring to drunken men people usually say they injure no one but themselves. There is nothing more absurd than this statement. Ninety-nine drinkers out of a hundred always hunt up busy men as soon as they get under the influence of liquor and annoy them.

Don't waste your money buying plasters when you can get a bottle of Chamberlain's Liniment for 25 cents. A piece of flannel dampened with this liniment is superior to any plaster for lame back, pains in the side and chest, and much cheaper. Sold by all dealers.

At the meeting of the State Board of Election Commissioners, held in Frankfort last week, Dr. J. R. Carroll, Dem., and M. F. Horton, Rep., were appointed election commissioners for Wolfe county, and Ren Nickell, Dem., and L. B. Reed, Rep., for Morgan county. James Brophy, Dem., and J. B. McLin, Rep., are the appointments for Breathitt county.

Your complexion as well as your temper is rendered miserable by a disordered liver. By taking Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets you can improve both. Sold by all dealers.

HON. THOS. C. JOHNSON, of Tallega, was in town Monday and Tuesday of this week, and in a talk with the editor of this paper he explained to some extent the policy he will pursue in making the race for Commonwealth's Attorney. He says that while he proposes to make a vigorous fight and use all necessary vim to become victorious he will use no vitriol. In brief there will be no mud slinging or personal abuse from him or in his behalf so far as he can control affairs. That if he can not win on merit he will not be maledicted. The people know him and know his career as a citizen and as a lawyer, and he is willing to be weighed in the balance. Then if found wanting in ability or energy as compared to his opponent he will stand down and out. Mr. Johnson is a native of this town, and the people of Wolfe county know him too well to need any introduction at our hands. But we shall from time to time remind our readers that he is running to win the race, and if elected that he will faithfully perform his duties. Mr. Redwine we have not seen, and we do not know the policy he will pursue, but we feel safe in saying that he is better than ever qualified for the position to which he aspires and that his views have broadened considerably within the past few years. After an interview with him we will be prepared to state his policy throughout the campaign and if it be as liberal as we opine he is sure to land a winner. With this hope in view we this week place the names of both gentlemen at the head of our editorial page, and call upon all simon pure Democrats to give them their suffrage.

THERE are two sides to all questions and last week when we deplored the fact that a few of our citizens were arraigned against the tiling enterprise we did not know that these gentlemen objected on account of smoke, noise, etc., only, and that the three had offered Mr. Fetterly $45 to change his location, at the same time giving him a site four times the size of the one chosen and just as eligible. Why a compromise could not be effected upon these lines is beyond our ken and is especially to be deplored on account of the precarious condition of a near by neighbor. We are indeed sorry that there has been any clash over the matter and hope that as the building has already been built the plant will not be as objectionable as has been anticipated. And in event it is there should be and doubtless is a remedy that will satisfy all parties.

THE Breathitt County News announces that "It will support Judge Redwine and Colonel Johnson for Circuit Judge and Commonwealth's Attorney because it believes that for numberless reasons it will be to the best interests of the country to have them elected. Both are lawyers, and men who have demonstrated by their achievements that they are men who can meet and master conditions that confront them. They are both successful men who have acquitted themselves with dignity, honor and credit in all their undertakings. They are strong, experienced men, capable of successfully filling positions that require men."

The nomination of Judge David B. Redwine and Hon. Thomas C. Johnson for the offices of Circuit Judge and Commonwealth's Attorney by the Democratic convention was the result of an upheaval in public sentiment brought about by the demand for what all thinking men regard as a public necessity: namely, a lawyer of ability and experience both on the bench and in the office of Commonwealth's Attorney. At no convention held in this district has there ever been such unanimity of opinion as to who should be nominated, nor such unbounded enthusiasm as was displayed for the candidates.

David B. Redwine, the candidate for Judge, is one of the leading lawyers of Kentucky. His long experience in public life and upon the bench, his intimate acquaintance with the people and his ready knowledge of the law peculiarly fit him for the position. His public career is well known to the people of the district, whether serving as county attorney of Breathitt county, a member of the Legislature or as Circuit Judge, he has given to the people a faithful, conscientious and able administration of office.

The nominee for Commonwealth's Attorney, Thomas C. Johnson, is a resident of Lee county, a farmer and a lawyer of ability, having engaged actively in the practice of law for over thirty years in every court in the district. He is eminently qualified. His high personal integrity, his ability as a lawyer and his years of experience are a guarantee that as Commonwealth's Attorney the law and order leaders will not find it necessary to employ counsel to see that criminals are punished and violators of the law brought to justice.

A competent Judge and an efficient Commonwealth's Attorney are the demand of the hour. The election of Redwine and Johnson is the only hope the people have to supply this demand.—Breathitt County News.

Grover May, of Jackson, was at the Day House over Sunday.

Kentucky Day—Press Day—Good Roads Day.

To the Members of the Kentucky Press Association: The management of the Kentucky State Fair has designated Thursday, September 16, as Kentucky Day, Press Day, Good Roads Day, and extends to you a most cordial invitation to be present at the fair in a body on that interesting occasion.

The State Fair is a institution of which every Kentuckian should be proud. Its effectiveness in exploiting the live stock, agricultural and horticultural interests of the commonwealth cannot be too highly estimated, and goes far toward evidencing Kentucky's foremost rank among progressive states.

It is a happy combination which couples Kentucky Day with Good Roads and the Press, two factors which above all others, perhaps, means most in the state's development.

I heartily endorse the invitation of the management to the editors and earnestly hope that every member of the Kentucky Press Association will be on the fair grounds bright and early September 16th to enjoy, and be benefited by the events of the day. I am assured by Secretary Newman that the courtesies of the occasion will be generous.

I hereby appoint the following reception committee: H. A. Sommers, Elizabethtown; C. M. Meacham, Hopkinsville; R. W. Brown, Louisville; Harry McCarty, Nicholasville; Paul M. Moore, Earlinton; Louis Landrum, Richmond; E. A. Gullion, New Castle; Lew B. Brown, Harrodsburg; Tim Needham, Williamstown; L. W. Gaines, Trenton; A. D. Miller, Richmond; Dan Bomar, Versailles; W. B. Haldeman, Louisville; E. Barry, Benton; Charles W. Metcalfe, Pineville; E. D. Shinnick, Shelbyville; J. R. Wilson, Falmouth; Ed O. Leigh, Bowling Green; Henry R. Lawrence, Cadiz; Ben Cozine, Shelbyville; Gordon B. Hall, Madisonville; C. C. Givens, Henderson; A. R. Dunlap, Frankfort; J. J. House, Lexington, and, of course, Clarence E. Wood, official announcer.

T. C. UNDERWOOD,
President Kentucky Press Association.

Don't Be a Quitter.

Blessed is the man who sticks to his work, for he shall rejoice in its accomplishment.

Blessed is the man who hangs on to his job, for the end thereof is full knowledge of the way the work must be done.

Blessed is the man who puts his whole heart into his task, for at the end of the day his work will sing to him.

Blessed is the man who is not ashamed of dirt, grime and labor stain, for when his work is done, clean will be the money in his pay envelope.

Blessed is the man who maketh the work at his hand a stepping stone to better things, for under the stimulation of work well done will come energy to rise to the higher plane.

Blessed is the man who through patience and industry, comes to the end of his day, for his sleep shall be sweet and his dreams divine.

The quitter is not so!

Free from Alcohol

Since May, 1906, Ayer's Sarsaparilla has been entirely free from alcohol. If you are in poor health, weak, pale, nervous, ask your doctor about taking this non-alcoholic tonic and alternative. If he has a better medicine, take his. Get the best always. This is our advice.

We publish our formulae. We banish alcohol from our medicines. We urge you to consult your doctor.

A sluggish liver means a coated tongue, a bad breath, and constipated bowels. The question is, "What is the best thing to do under such circumstances?" Ask your doctor if this is not a good answer: "Take laxative doses of Ayer's Pills."

Made by the J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

THE HERALD.

DRINK WAINSCOTT'S ROX A KOLA

Miss Maurine McLin, of Jackson, is visiting her cousins, Misses Mildred and Daisy McLin.

J. B. Hollen and family, of Neola, hospitably entertained Mr. and Mrs. Bicknell Sunday.

Attorneys S. G. Sample and G. B. Stamper, of Campton, were here Saturday on legal business.

C. W. Nickell, with Trimble Bros., Mt. Sterling, was a guest of the Cecil House Tuesday night.

Bro. Bicknell preached at Neola Sunday morning and at the Old-field schoolhouse in the afternoon.

J. B. McLin and little daughter, Maurine, of Jackson, were guests of R. J. McLin and wife over Sunday.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Rev. J. P. Bicknell, of our town, is at Livingston, Tenn., assisting Bro. Derthick in a protracted meeting.

Ed M. McNabb, a son of Buen M. McNabb, of the Toliver neighborhood, is quite sick with typhoid fever.

Misses Lula Nickell and Virginia Day, with C. F. Kash and son, Karl, were at Jackson Friday and Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Asbury James, of Lacy creek, visited his mother, Mrs. Angeline James, from Saturday until Monday.

For Sale—A Victor graphophone with 36 records; will be sold for less than the cost of the records. Apply at this office.

Pups For Sale.—John Ward has five full-blooded bird dog pups for sale. This is a good opportunity to get a fine dog cheap.

Miss Florence Miller, of Louisville, and teacher in the H. G. A., came in last Thursday ready for the opening session of school.

Rev. Sam Henry Elam, of Magoffin county, spent Saturday and Sunday with the family of his brother, B. F. Elam, near town.

Edgar and James Alexander and Taylor Taulbee, of Daysboro, attended league services at the Methodist church here Sunday evening.

A good crowd of Hazel Green people enjoyed a grand watermelon feast at the home of Harlan Nickell, near the Amyx school house.

Miss Daisy Day and niece, Miss Rowena Kash, left Tuesday for Torrent, where they will be guests of El Park Hotel for an indefinite period.

For Sale—Two of the Pieratt cottages for less than the lumber and lot can be bought. One acre in each lot; five rooms in each house. Apply at this office.

Dr. A. C. Nickell reports the birth of a boy to the wife of Sam Osborn, of Lacy creek, Thursday night; also, to the wife of Granville McIntosh, of Lacy creek, Tuesday, August 31, a still-born child.

Almost a Murder.

The Lexington Herald of Wednesday week contained a telegram announcing that Joel Stamper, of Torrent, had on Tuesday evening shot his sister-in-law, Mrs. J. D. Lucas, in an attempt to kill Lucas, who it was stated had just married the woman. The wounded woman was taken to the Good Samaritan Hospital, at Lexington, and on Monday was released as out of danger. But there seems to be doubt as to whether Lucas and the woman are married. He introduced her as his wife, but she referred to him as her sweetheart, and if he is married to her he is a bigamist, as he has a suit pending in the Lee Circuit court for divorce from a second wife, he having been divorced from the first. It is a mixed affair and may lead Lucas to the pen, where he recently served a sentence for manslaughter at Beattyville.

Surveyors at Work.

A corps of surveyors are on the Landsaw fork of Stillwater indicating the route for the Mountain Central extension from Campton. This is what has been designated as the upper route. It comes out at the head of Landsaw fork, crosses from Stillwater to Lacy creek at the Jeff Rose place and thence down the Little fork of Lacy creek. The projectors of the road claim that when once the route is determined upon they can grade and put down the rails and ties within 90 day. If they are correct in their surmise the people hereabout can ride on the train from Hazel Green and do their Christmas shopping in Winchester and Lexington.

A Quick Trip.

Uncle Sam Wilson and Mort Cecil made one of the quickest trips on record last Monday. They made all arrangements and preparations Sunday to attend the fair at Mt. Sterling this week, and when 9 o'clock Monday morning came Uncle Sam reported at THE HERALD office that Mort was plowing. They had been to the fair, so Sam says, and report a delightful trip, lauding the fair to the skies and saying the display was better than either the Chicago or St. Louis exhibitions and the racing better than any ever held in Lexington.

Birthday Dinner.

A birthday dinner came off at the home of G. W. Wheeler August 24th, in honor of his father, G. R. Wheeler, it being the 80th anniversary of his birth. Among the noted visitors were Mrs. Benson Davis and grandson, B. E. Davis, of Elze; Rev. W. R. Davis and Mrs. Pete Everett Gullett of Neola, and Miss Thrasher and Earnest Smith, of McCausey. The old gentleman left on the 26th for Grassy creek and brought Hattie Wheeler home with him. Miss Hattie is teaching the Halsey school.

Hit With a Baseball.

Mrs. Francis Whaley was painfully hurt Sunday by a baseball, pitched by one boy to another. The catcher failed to land it and going astray it hit Mrs. Whaley square in the forehead, cutting a place which took three stitches to close. Dr. A. C. Nickell attended her and left her resting easy. Her many friends are now joking her by saying it served her right; she had no business to be playing ball on Sunday.

Col. Jack Hittenhouse on Tuesday last bought of E. F. Cecil 26 head of yearlings, long yearlings and two-year-old steers. We did not learn the weight or price; but they were a nice bunch in color and general contour. Col. Hittenhouse will drive them to Bourbon county to graze and possibly hold some of them for export trade when they develop in size and weight.

If you want a fine razor—as good as you can buy for $2—call this at office and get one for $1. We also have a few watches, good time keepers, that can be had for $1 each. Don't wait until supply is gone.

Henry Gillaspie, who has been quite ill with typhoid fever, was much better Tuesday and it is now thought he will soon be up and about.

Dr. A. M. Laird, of the firm of Dickson & Laird, dentists, of Jackson, is at Hazel Green at the Day House, and will be here two weeks. Call and have your teeth looked over.

Born, to the wife of Robert J. McLin, August 15th, a girl, of which the mother seems especially proud, albeit she has four others just as likely in the eyes of her friends.

The many friends and patients of Dr. C. Hood Williams, who has been confined to his home for five weeks past, will be glad to know that he is now again able to answer all calls.

For Sale.—One 12-horse, portable Aultman-Taylor boiler and engine; also, one 22-inch Bradford corn mill. All in first-class order. For further information apply to F. M. Long, Demund, Ky.

The Ladies' Aid Society met at Mrs. Caskey's Thursday afternoon and made wine or grape juice for communion services. Refreshments were served, consisting of watermelon and lemonade.

Charley Cecil, of the firm of Cecil Bros., has been suffering with sciatic rheumatism for a week or so past, but was able to get about until Tuesday afternoon when he took to his bed with malarial fever.

G. W. Johnson, who has been touring some of the blue grass counties for a week or so past with the view of locating, returned Monday without having contracted for any farm, though he may do so later.

"It is hard," said a man the other day, "to get up any enthusiasm in this town." This is true of any town. Particularly if a man is compelled to go down into his pocket for money to back his enthusiasm.

The Gyp theatrical troupe gave an entertainment at Daysboro last Tuesday night, which is said to have been the best performance from a financial view that they have yet given. Ellis Johnson gave excursion rates on his hay wagon, taking fifteen at half rates, or 15 cents a head.

Prof. M. V. Roberts and family left Monday for a visit to relatives and friends in Owsley county. The professor will work in the interest of Hazel Green Academy meantime and Miss Lola Ambrose, sister of Mrs. Roberts, who has been visiting her here for some time, will go to her home, at Berea, after visiting awhile in Owsley.

Elsewhere in this issue of our paper Ellsworth Lacy, of Rardin, Ill., advertises his farm on Lacy creek for sale, and states that he will sell at a bargain if a buyer shows up within the next 30 days. The farm is well known as the Will Cruy farm and is quite a desirable home. Go and look at it and then write Mr. Lacy as to terms.

Zeke McClure, of Grassy creek, died Saturday of typhoid fever and was buried Sunday. Mr. McClure was about 60 years of age, well known in Morgan and Wolfe and leaves besides his own family a host of friends. He was a prominent man in county affairs and politics, and very generally liked by all who knew him.

Two men representing the State Board of Health were in town Tuesday looking over and inspecting the stores which handle staple drugs. They also left some stringent orders in regard to the sale of poisonous drugs like morphine, etc. Their names were not ascertained by "Our Man About Town," but they went to Rittenhouse Ranch from here.

KENTUCKY KERNELS

Carefully Collected and Concisely Chronicled.

Shed Williams, of the Moorefield neighborhood, in Nicholas county, has realized over $400 from one brood sow in thirteen months.

While talking to friends immediately after finishing supper, John Venter, age 61 years, died suddenly of heart failure at Boones Fork, in Letcher county.

A cloudburst on Middle creek, near Prestonsburg, last week, caused that stream to become so swollen that many houses and barns were washed away.

Miss Mayme Johnson, who resides near Franklin, was thrown from a buggy and became entangled in the wheels. While severely bruised, she escaped without serious injury.

The general store of R. C. Hill, at Beattyville, was broken into last Friday, but it is not known what amount of goods were stolen. There is no clue as to who did the work.

Night riders set fire to two large stacks of wheat belonging to Mrs. John Strube, in Robertson county. The allegation is that Mrs. Strube refused to sign the tobacco pooling pledge. The band was composed of 25 men.

Smith Cobb, an employe of a sawmill in Jessamine county, met with a horrible accident at the mill. A slab which he was removing broke, throwing him across the saw, cutting his hip and severing his spine. He died twenty minutes later.

While feeding a wounded crane which his father had captured and imprisoned in a wire cage, the 14-year-old son of A. D. Leach, of Centerville, in Bourbon county, was viciously attacked by the bird and the sight of one eye destroyed.

At Dry Fork church, in Casey county, John and Addie Chapman engaged in a fight with John Luttrell and family. Addie Chapman and Luttrell are dead, and John Chamley and wife, son-in-law and daughter of Luttrell, were both seriously wounded.

Fred Victor, of Smith Branch, killed eight copperhead snakes one day last week. While working on his farm he ran into a den of snakes and succeeded in killing all of them. This seems to be the record snake story for Greenup county this year.

Constable Philip Joseph was fatally and Noah Wadkins seriously wounded by Edward Conley, at Lavin, in Greenup county, while trying to serve a warrant charging him with carrying concealed weapons. Conley was shot through the abdomen by the constable.

Mrs. Henry E. Youtsey, wife of the only man who is serving sentence for complicity in the murder of William Goebel, has filed papers in Clark Circuit court for divorce. The cause given in the petition is condemnation as a felon and separation for over five years.

Under the will of John C. Latham, the rich New York banker who died August 18, his home town, Hopkinsville, secures two public parks and $30,000, and Grace Episcopal church, of the same place, the income of $50,000. The rest of his estate is divided among his relatives and employes.

The Harrodsburg Herald says that the biggest trust on earth is the country newspaper. It trusts everybody, gets cussed for trusting, and if it busts for trusting gets cussed for busting. And there you are. Cut out this article and send it to us with what you owe on subscription.

During an electrical storm Ben Poer, of Clark county, had three cows killed by lightning, two of which were valued at $75 each, and the other nearly as valuable. His son, James, was returning to the house from the barn at the time and was hurled to the ground where he remained senseless for some time.

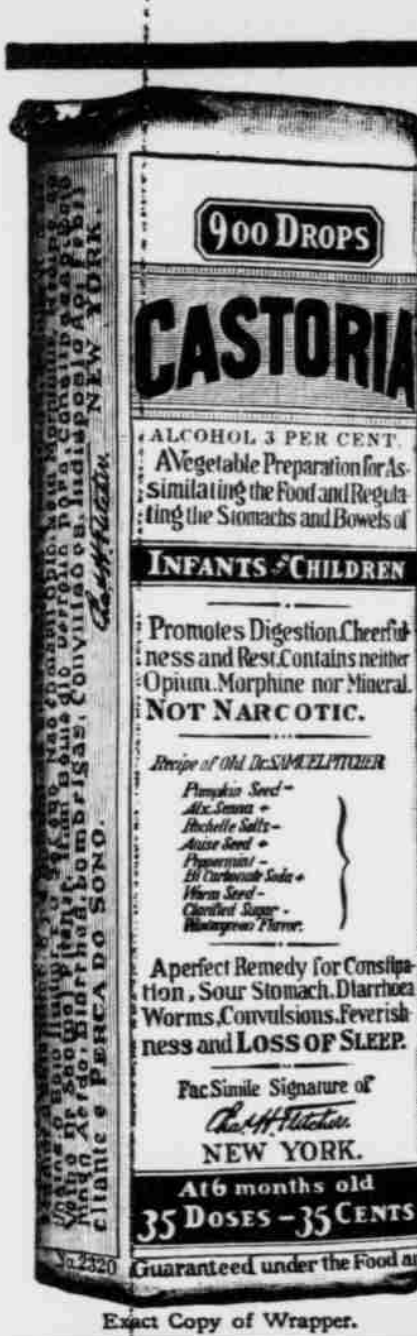

Lucinda Davis, colored, of Louisville, may have never won a cake, but she certainly gained distinction as a consumer of melons. At a watermelon eating contest she ate four large luscious melons and captured the prize. The prize was a big watermelon. Lucinda ate this one also and drifted to the other world.

The State Federation of Woman's Clubs in Kentucky three years ago began a campaign against illiteracy. It formed 108 school improvement leagues in the 119 counties of the state and offered $300 as a prize to the rural school that did the most to make itself a model school. The prize has just been awarded to the Buckhorn school in Owsley county.

Two Farms For Sale.

THE VERY BEST.

Have any of our readers seen a recent copy of the Cincinnati Weekly Enquirer? If not, it will pay to send for a copy, if for no other purpose than to note its present great worth as an educator in all things that tend to make life prosperous, and home, the happiest place on earth.

The editor by asking its readers to criticize and suggest improvements; and following advice thus obtained is enabled to produce a paper that exactly fits needs of a family and a material aid to father, mother and children in reaching that higher level in social life, where content and comfort reigns supreme.

Father obtains ample information that guides in the where, when and how to regulate and increase the income from his efforts. The mother in management of household affairs, practical economy, government of children, and other duties that makes her toil a labor of love. Children's minds and hearts are freed from thoughts of questionable amusements and frivolities of life, and encouraged to emulate all that is helpful in planning for a useful future in life.

The Grand Idea being that: "As are our Homes, so will be the Community, State and Nation."

A most desirable help, is a non-sectarian sermon each week, as preached by that Biblical Student Pastor Chas. T. Russell; a forcible reminder of the spiritual and temporal rewards gained by righteous living as preferable to a Godless life that brings nought but misery to the home.

Other departments and features are above the ordinary, the unanimous verdict of its readers' being: "The cleanest and best family Weekly known to them."

Sample copies may be had by writing to the ENQUIRER COMPANY, Cincinnati, O.

ENTRIES AND EXHIBITS.

Exhibition and Classification of the Kentucky State Fair.

Entries and exhibits of all livestock departments except for horses, mules and jack stock will close Monday, Sept. 6, at 6:00 p. m., and all other departments prior to Friday, Sept. 10. Entries of horses, mules and jack stock will close positively at 12 o'clock noon the day before the exhibition. There will be a printed program of the entries of horses, jack stock and cattle, together with the name of the owner, name and color of the animal and number of the entry, which must correspond with the number worn by the person in charge of the animal. It is absolutely essential that this information accompany the entry, which must be filed with the secretary before the closing date. Exhibits must be placed by 9 o'clock Monday morning, Sept. 13th, and all exhibitors will be so notified. There are 1,400 different rings in which prizes are offered, and there is a total of over 300 lots.

The horse classification is subdivided into classes suitable for light harness, five-gaited saddle-horses, roadsters, combined harness and five-gaited horses, American carriage horses, three-gaited saddle-horses, combination horses, plantation saddle-horses, high stepping and runabout classes, Shetland ponies and fine horses.

Good premiums are given for both mules and jack stock. In the beef cattle department, Short-horns, Herefords, Polled Durhams, Aberdeen-Angus and Red Polls are given most liberal classifications. In the Dairy Cattle Department, Jerseys, Holstein-Friesians, Guernseys and Ayrshires are recognized. The swine department includes Berkshires, Poland Chinas, Duroc Jerseys, Chester Whites, Tamworths, Hampshires and Yorkshires. In the sheep department prizes are offered for the following breeds: Shropshires, Southdowns, Oxford, Hampshires, Cotswolds, Dorsets, American Merinos, Delaine Merinos, Rambouillets, Lincolns, Cheviots and also a class for Angora goats.

The poultry department covers every known standard variety. The same is true of the pigeon department, the prize money for these departments being much larger than last year. The department for vegetables and melons, field seed and grain and tobacco contains classes for almost every product grown in the farm. In horticulture there are over 700 prizes offered for apples, peaches, pears, grapes and miscellaneous fruits. Plants and flowers, one of the most beautiful and attractive exhibits of the State Fair, will be well taken care of this year and will be placed alongside of the women's department. In no department is there a more interesting collection of premiums than in that set aside for woman's work, children's work and table linens.

FINE DAIRY STOCK.

Holstein-Friesians at the Kentucky State Fair.

The Holstein-Friesian has long been known to Kentuckians as a great milk producer, but there has been no concerted action among the breeders of this dairy cow in Kentucky. The fact that the three hospitals for the insane and the state feeble-minded institute at Frankfort have decided to use this breed altogether in their dairies, requiring six or seven hundred cows, is a great stimulus to the breed in Kentucky.

The $250 donated to the Kentucky State Fair by the Holstein-Friesian Association is in great measure due to Stanley Milward, a member of the board of control for these institutions, and a recognition on the part of the Holstein-Friesian Association of the value such a move would be to this breed of cattle in the state. The asylums will have on exhibition at the Kentucky State Fair some of the best specimens of the black and white dairy cows to be found in the country.

Students' Judging Contest.

Commissioner M. C. Rankin has offered two sets of prizes for farmer boys in this state and for the students in the Agricultural College. The amount for farmer boys is $100, to be awarded to the young man who makes the largest score in judging livestock at the State Fair. This money to be used as scholarship to the Agricultural Department of the State University, the contestant to be required to file written opinion, with reasons therefor, on horses, cattle, swine and sheep exhibits. The prize for students' judging contest amounts to $50, to be divided into $20, $15, $10 and $5. Competition will be limited to students in the State University. It is the purpose of the commissioner in offering these specials to educate the young men of the state in livestock judging. The requirements are quite liberal, and there is no reason why any bright young man in the state should not enter the contest.

The Louisville public schools will for the first time have an exhibit of the work done in the various grades upon the State Fair grounds this year during the week of Sept. 13-18. The Kentucky State Fair is getting to be more and more an educational institution, and it is hoped before many years to have a great display of the work done in the various schools of the commonwealth.

For catalog, entry blank or other information, write J. W. Newman, Secretary, 320 Paul Jones Building, Louisville, Ky.

BEHIND THE SCENES.

Difficulties With Which a Young Actor Had to Struggle.

An actor's life, although often interesting and frequently useful, is by no means easy. When Frederick Warde, the English tragedian, brought his wife and children to this country to live with him while he made his way here he was, after various ups and downs, engaged by Mr. Booth to play certain prominent parts. In "Talks in a Library" Mr. Laurence Hutton relates some of the difficulties with which the young actor had to struggle.

The company, long associated with Mr. Booth, with the single exception of Warde, was not assembled, and there could be but one or two rehearsals before the first performance. Warde had never even seen the play of "Othello" and had no idea how to dress it—a very important item to a man who had little money to devote to costumes.

There were, of course, professional persons who could have fitted him out from wig to sandal, but to those he could not afford to go.

He read the tragedy many times, studied his part till he was what is called "letter perfect," and at the Astor library copied many drawings, colored by his own hand, of the dresses he had to wear. These garments and effects were made out of the cheapest material from his own patterns, cut and sewed by his wife, and for six weeks nothing in that house was thought of or talked about but "Othello."

The young man, realizing what it all meant to him, was exceedingly anxious about the results, as was his wife. They lived in a poor, humble little apartment, and he was to take a midnight train to the scene of his great effort only a day or two before he was to make his debut in one of the most important and trying parts of the English drama.

I went to the train with him, and just as we were starting Mrs. Warde came down and said:

"I've just been putting the children to bed, and I must tell you what Arthur prayed."

Arthur was then a lad not out of his frocks. It seems that the child, kneeling by his little cot, had gone through the regular formula, "Our Father," "Now I lay me," "Please, God, remember papa and mamma and little sister and dear grandmother in England," and had then added, as an impromptu, "and, O God, do please help papa through with 'Othello.'"

I told this story at a dinner one night, as I am trying to tell it now, and was startled by an inquiry from the wife of a clergyman, who, with wonder and doubt in her voice, demanded, "Do you mean to tell me that actors' children say their prayers?"

The Point of the Pin.

Mechanically the interviewer dived out his well worn questions. "And how, Sir William, did you get your start in life?"

"I got my start in life, young man," said the pork merchant, "through picking up a pin in the street. I had been refused employment by a butcher, and on my way out I saw a pin. I—"

"Quite so!" chimed in the seasoned interviewer. "You picked it up, the butcher was impressed by your carefulness, called you back and took you into partnership. I know that pin so well!"

"Excuse me," broke in the pork vendor, "but you proceed too fast. I saw the pin and picked it up—quite true. But I sold it for £100. It was a diamond pin."—London Mail.

The Job He Wanted.

"Dear Sir," said an applicant for a position to the secretary of the treasury, according to the Saturday Evening Post, "I am very anxious to obtain remunerative employment in the treasury department. While my educational advantages do not qualify me for any of the higher places, I could fill one of the minor places to advantage, and I respectfully apply for the position of chief cuspidorian of the department."

The letter went to the assistant secretary for reply, and he wrote as follows:

"Dear Sir—I regret very much that nothing can be done for you. There is no such place as chief cuspidorian. You have coined the word, but I cannot coin the job."

Tempus Fugit.

Two darkies were engaged in a lively dispute about the purchase of a mule.

"Look heah, Mistah Jackson," exclaimed one, "you done tole me t'ree weeks ago dat mule was a young animal. He hain't got a toof in his head, he's so old."

Whereupon Mr. Jackson thoughtfully scratched his head and replied, "Time shua does fly in dis heah country."—Success Magazine.

A TIPSY DUKE'S PRANK.

The Story of How Mrs. Connolly Became Lady Michael.

In former times there used to be a certain Duke of Richmond, then lord lieutenant of Ireland, who belonged to the hail fellow well met species. With his boon companions it was his almost daily habit to go to a certain fashionable inn at Bray, kept by one Michael Connolly. There much wine was consumed during his incumbency of the lord lieutenantship, and many and wild were the nights that the little inn at Bray witnessed. Connolly had a reputation as being the best cook in Ireland, and it was said his wine was the best to be found within the confines of the Emerald Isle. The Duke of Richmond said so, and he ought to have known, as he had eaten tons of the one and imbibed tons of the other.

Connolly's cooking and Connolly's wine were popular themes of conversation with his lordship, and he was not niggardly with his praise of either. Wine is a great leveler of ranks, and so it fell out one night that the duke, carried away by his admiration for Connolly's talents in kitchen and taproom, committed an egregious, amusing mistake. The night in question had been an even more than usually wet one at the inn at Bray, and the duke, the innkeeper himself and all of the duke's companions were lost to all sense of either proportion or the eternal fitness of things.

Therefore no one thought it strange when the duke sent for mine host and, after a speech of praise of his viands, the way in which they were prepared and especially of his wine cellar, bade him kneel. Then, striking him across the shoulders, he said, "Rise, Sir Michael Connolly! And Sir Michael rose and the rapturous applause of those present. It seemed quite the proper caper then, but the next morning, as it came back to still further jax the aching head of the duke, it bore a somewhat different aspect, and the principal question that agitated the ducal mind was how he was to get out of the scrape.

Connolly was summoned and, in the faint hope that the ceremony had made no impression, asked if he remembered aught that happened the night previous. Sir Michael did and manifested a disquieting determination to hang on to his newly acquired title. But, as have lesser and greater men before and since, he fell a willing victim to bribery and finally agreed not to press his claim to knighthood. The price was heavy, but not too high to pay for the suppression of a tale that would make his grace of Richmond the laughingstock of London, and so the duke was turning, satisfied with his morning's work, when the late Sir Michael dashed his self congratulations to the four winds.

"Yes, your grace, I'll keep quiet," he said as he jingled the price of his title in his pocket, "but," thoughtfully—"but it will take more than the likes of me to keep my wife, Lady Michael Connolly, quiet about the matter." And it did. Michael was right. She was Lady Michael to her friends from that day on and always laid claim to the title. The duke was the laughingstock of London, as he had feared, but a reformed man as well, for he dared take no further risks.—London Tatler.

A One Sided Chase.

In an English paper appears the following amusing anecdote: Some servants were exercising three horses and some of the hounds from the Hunt kennels when an inmate of the district asylum appeared on the scene.

"Eh, sic bonnie dogs," exclaimed the man, who was supposed to be daft, "sic bonnie dogs. And what dei keep they for?"

It was explained to him that they were kept for hunting the fox.

"An' sic bonnie horses. Are they for hunting the fox too?" He was told that they were, whereupon he asked the value of a horse and a dog, too, and, having been informed, he next wanted to know the value of a fox when caught.

"Oh, about tenpence," was the reply.

"Mercy mei, tenpence!" said the daftie. "Three hundrad pounds chasing tenpence! Let's awa."

A Crack In a Piece of Metal.

A crack in a piece of metal is prevented from extending farther by the well known means of drilling a hole where the rent ends. But when the hole is not bored on just that spot the crack is apt to continue beyond the hole. A scientific journal recommends moistening the cracked surface with petroleum, then wiping it and then immediately rubbing it with chalk. The oil that has penetrated into the crack exudes and thus indicates with precision where the crack stops.

Women Suffer

much needless pain when they delay using Cardui for their female troubles. Cardui has been found to relieve headache, backache, pain in the side and dizziness, arising from deranged organs. It does more than relieve,—if used persistently,—many have written to say that it cured them.

TAKE CARDUI

It Will Help You

Mrs. Maxwell Johnson, Tampa, Fla., writes: "Cardui cured me after doctors and everything else had failed. I had been suffering with numb spells ever since I was 16 years old. One day I decided to take Cardui. I have now taken 5 bottles and I can say that it has cured me. I advise all suffering women to give Cardui a long and fair trial."

Mrs. Johnson suffered years. Have you? Do you wish to? But why suffer at all? Take Cardui. Give it a fair trial.
